HIW TO BUY THE ADVANCE TICKETS ON AMAC FOR THE DEVIL

I couldn't find any information about a movie called "The Devil" that is currently playing or has upcoming showtimes. However, I can provide some general guidance on how to buy advanced tickets for a movie.

If you're referring to "The Devil's Hour" or possibly "The Devil's Hour" has been rebranded or you are referring to another movie, then please let me know so I can try to give you more accurate information.

That being said, here are the general steps to buy advanced tickets for a movie:

1. Check the movie's official website: Visit the movie's official website or social media pages to see if they have any information on advanced ticket sales.

2. Use a ticketing website: Websites like Fandango, Atom Tickets, or MovieTickets often allow you to purchase advanced tickets for upcoming movies. You can search for the movie and select your theater and showtime.
3. Contact the theater directly: Reach out to the theater where you want to see the movie and ask about advanced ticket sales. They may have a specific process or policy for purchasing tickets in advance.
4. Check with AMC (Arts and Manual Cinema) Theaters: If you're looking to buy tickets for an AMC theater, you can visit their website (www.amctheatres.com) and follow the prompts to purchase advanced tickets.

Please note that advanced ticket sales may be subject to change, and some theaters may have specific policies or restrictions on buying tickets in advance.
